

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

SECOND REGULAR SESSION, 90th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

SIXTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2000

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Almighty Goodness, those who know You well testify that “The earth is full of the Goodness of the Lord”. Help this House make plain that truth today. May these women and men uncover decency and integrity in word and deed. Let wisdom and agreement be unearthed from the labors of committees and discussions, discovered even in the wrangling and dispute so much a necessary part of the democratic process. So may even these final difficult days of this session attest that You are at work in the heart of our world, in the core of society, in the nucleus of this Chamber. Thank You, God, and help us, today and always. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Brandon Hammack, Courtney Kuhl, Justin Welch, Matt Koehner, Philip Christensen, Taylor Billings, Tiffany White, Riley Lohrmann, Bethany Parry, Leah Avila, Ashley Greer, Maxwell Vinas, Jacob Kuechenmeister, Joe Petri, Brandon Moore, LaShara Russell and Stephanie Adams.

The Journal of the sixty-third day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

WHEREAS, effective March 15, 2000, the federal Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) will no longer provide funding to states for the cleanup of clandestine drug laboratories; and

WHEREAS, in 1999, the Missouri State Highway Patrol conducted 757 clandestine drug laboratory investigations with a total of 615 drug labs seized; and

WHEREAS, the cost of cleaning up a clandestine drug laboratory can easily reach into the thousands of dollars; and

WHEREAS, the safety of the citizens of the state of Missouri will be greatly impacted if clandestine drug laboratories are allowed to continue operations because state and local law enforcement agencies simply cannot afford to seize and clean up these laboratories:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninetieth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby oppose the federal Drug Enforcement Administration's decision to cut off state funding to cover the cost of cleaning up clandestine drug laboratories; and

On and after the first day of July next following the operative date, any member who is sixty or more years of age and whose creditable service is five years or more, or whose sum of age and creditable service equals eighty years or more, or who has attained age fifty-five and whose creditable service is twenty-five years or more, or whose creditable service is thirty years or more regardless of age, may retire upon written application to the board of trustees and receive the full retirement benefits on the member's creditable service. Any other member whose creditable service is twenty-five or more years, or who has attained age fifty-five and whose creditable service is at least five years but less than twenty-five years, may retire upon written application to the board of trustees and receive the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which the member would be entitled if the member was sixty years of age.

If the member seeks, before becoming eligible for such retirement allowance, to withdraw the member's accumulated contributions, the total of such disability payments shall be deducted from the amount otherwise due the member.

3. Whether or not such disability exists in any case shall be adjudged in the manner provided in subsection 15 of section 169.020 by the board of trustees on the basis of reports made by two or more physicians selected by the board to examine the member. Until the member reaches age sixty, the recipient of a disability retirement allowance may be required to submit to periodic examinations by physicians selected by the board, and if any such examination shows that the recipient is no longer incapable of earning a livelihood in any occupation, the member's disability retirement shall be terminated. For the purposes of adjustments to Social Security Administration disability benefits pursuant to 20 CFR 404.408 any member receiving disability benefits pursuant to this section who is at least fifty-five years of age and whose creditable service is at least twenty-five years shall be considered to be receiving a normal retirement benefit pursuant to this section."; and
